Student Life

Student life at Kings Mountain High School during 1966-1967 was a new experience for the fatuous freshmen, an old adventure for the intrepid sophomores, a friend returning for the judicious juniors, and an old friend quickly passing for the sedulous seniors.

Among our activities to look forward to were pep rallies; bonfires; football games; Thanksgiving holidays; Christmas holidays; basketball games; S.P.O. elections; snow; intramurals; spring; Easter holidays; May Day activities; and, inevitably, graduation.

As a student body, we began studying together, assembling together, laughing together, and looking forward to each day with renewed interest.

The FTA enables prospective teachers to take a realistic look at teaching, its many opportunities, challenging problems, essential nature and services to humanity; to study and identify the qualities, traits, and aptitudes possessed by good teachers; and to explore their own interests, abilities, and skills to be sure the decision to teach or not to teach will be right for them.

The program of vocational agriculture at K.M.H.S. provides the foundation for the F.F.A. organization. The Mixed Chorus program seeks to provide enjoyment and appreciation of music. Students participate in choral workshops, vocal clinics, and district contests. Concerts and an operetta are presented annually. From this group a smaller unit called the Choir gives performances in the community.

The following boys received awards at the 1966 Football Banquet: Sandy Mauney and Tommy Finger, Most Valuable Player Award; Kenny Plonk, Fred Plonk Blocking Trophy; Chuck Gladden, John Gamble Scholarship Award; Eddie Bridges, Most Improved Player Award.

The Kings Mountain High School football team of 1966 ended the season with a record of five wins and five losses. The boys basketball team for 1966-67 came up this year with a winning team. The five starters were Steve Spencer, Larry Burton, Nelson Conner, Ken Mitchem, and George Adams, Larry Burton and Nelson Conner were the only senior starters. This year's was quoted by many people as the best the school has ever had. The team, along with the backing of their fans and their own team spirit, won the Southwestern Conference basketball title.

Girls Varsity Basketball

The girls varsity basketball team for 1966-67 played a tough year of basketball. Even though the team didn't come out with a winning year they played hard and tried their best. The team was hampered greatly by injuries. Many of the starting players were injured and weren't able to play. They were hardly ever beaten by a big margin, but lost many times by just a few points.

The student body of Kings Mountain High School commends the girls for their fine sportsmanship.

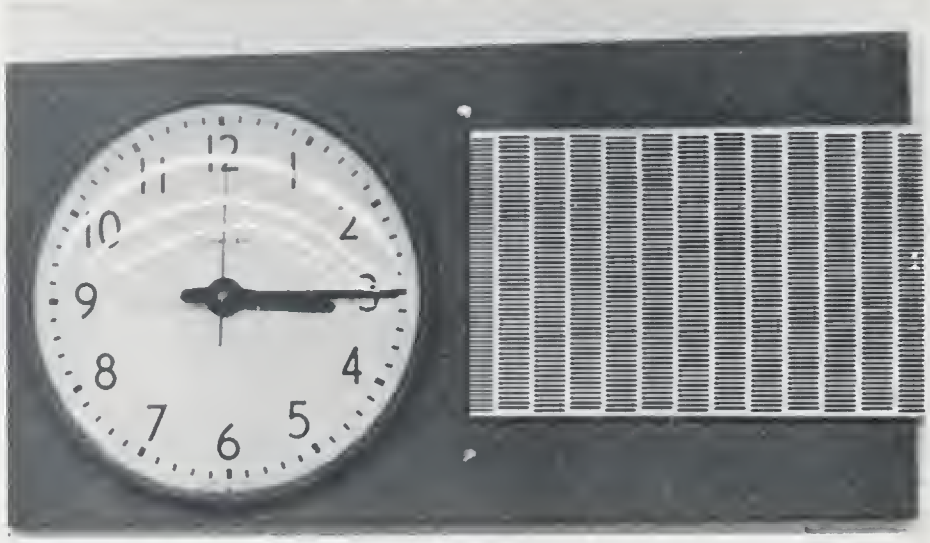
Conclusion

We were loyal to our traditions; still, we ventured into new frontiers.

We attended various sports, displayed school spirit, and relaxed during holidays.

We studied for exams, took exams, passed exams, failed exams.

The school year marched on intermittently through rain, snow, and "no heat."



NOW AT THE END IS THE BEGINNING

For some, the dear days of high school are over. For others, those days are yet ahead.

Yes, here we are at the end of a school year; yet, it is the beginning of a new opportunity—a new opportunity to do better "next year."
